PERSONAL PROFILE

I have always wanted to change my career to programming. I love exploring new technologies and I am very self-motivated and disciplined.

I have a diploma from School of Engineering in Belgrade, Serbia as well as an array of courses and certificates related to programming and business management here in Ireland.

I love programming and coding, I am a team player, I enjoy Hackathons in groups, and always striving to improve my coding experience and abilities. I love Java and Python but also enjoy JavaScript, jQuery, JSON, APIs etc.

I would love my career to go in direction of becoming a Junior Web Developer, as well as Full stack Developer. My plan for future is to get my Java SE Professional Programmer Certificate, learn more about Python and JavaScript, Django, Flask, Heroku.
